1. Opening Prayer and Review of Minutes

Fr. Mosimann opened the meeting with a prayer at 7:30 PM. The minutes from the last meeting were approved.

2. Committee Reports

Mr. Elszy mentioned the Knights of Columbus—sponsored pancake breakfast on May 18, which will be the last of the year. Upcoming are a communion breakfast, an award ceremony, the Kovar collection, and the United in Charity golf tournament. The Knights will be voting on a new slate of officers at the end of the month.

The representative from the Outreach committee was absent but will circulate a detailed report later.

The Stewardship committee reported that Sign-Up Sunday is set for September 20 and 21 and Doughnut Sunday will be on Fathers' Day weekend, June 15. The Lenten Soup Suppers were successful, netting about $2 thousand dollars despite missing a week because of leak in the kitchen.

We have now calculated the new Capital Campaign pledges from the in-pew campaign, and we have collected more than $1 million through the Memorials program. Our budget is on target and the Offertory average has been rising over the past three report periods. Our mortgage is at $3.6 million.

3. Construction

Whiting Turner is working with the concrete contractor to remedy problems on the patio. The Preservation Society of Loudoun County will give us an architecture award; we have already won two similar awards from town organizations. Fr. Mosimann said that we have purchased five angels for dispensing holy water. He also explained that the bell shells keep falling in the tower and we will likely not replace them so they do not cause any damage.

We are finishing the conceptual design for the possible expansion of the offices, and next go to the design development documents then take the construction documents to bid in late summer or early fall.

4. Old and New Business

The group discussed several strategies for informing parishioners 1) where the lines for the different confessionals begin, and 2) which priests are available for confessions. They also discussed options for improving traffic flow during holiday masses.

We have moved a pew out of the baptistry and into the narthex that will have a sign reading, "Please reserve for parents who are attending to their children."

5. Adjournment

After Fr. Mosimann led a closing prayer, the meeting adjourned at 9:30 PM. The next meeting will be on September 3.
